Ok, thanks!

Hi Emi, I wasn't able to quickly find the letter from Ecology withdrawing its draft 401 certification from the draft 2010 NPDES permit that EPA issued, but I did want to confirm that my understanding is that Ecology withdrew its draft 401 certification from the EPA's 2010 draft NPDES permit, so that the hatchery could resubmit its permit application to EPA for our agency to issue the 2016 draft NPDES permit. If I'm able to find the withdrawal letter quickly, I'll send it to you. Otherwise, I suggest contacting Ecology for a copy of the letter.

Thanks,
